

Maj. Gen. Timothy P. Kelly is the Mobilization Assistant to the Military Deputy, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition, the Pentagon, Arlington, Virginia. He is responsible for assisting the Military Deputy in leading research and development, acquisition, test, production and modernization of Air Force programs worth more than $32 billion annually.

General Kelly entered the Air Force in 1987 as a graduate of the University of Delaware ROTC program. He is a member of the professional acquisition corps and has extensive experience with leading-edge research and development. He has broad weapon systems acquisition experience including laboratory, air-to-air weapons, science and technology, space and intelligence systems, and integrated air defense systems. General Kelly joined the Air Force Reserve in 1998. Prior to assuming his current position, he was the Mobilization Assistant to the Commander, Air Education and Training Command, Joint Base San Antonio-Randolph, Texas.

As a civilian, he is the Director of Special Programs and Technology Integration for the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy. In this capacity he is responsible for providing policy advice and support to the Secretary of Defense and other senior Department of Defense leaders by formulating, recommending, integrating, and implementing policies and strategies to improve United States strategic capabilities.
